Context under state law

- RCW 35A.21.360
- Religious organizations enjoy protection under state law to host homeless encampments
- City can regulate, but must meet the following tests:
  - Regulation must protect public health and safety
  - Regulation must not substantially burden the host’s ability to house the encampment
Clarifications and Information

- Total number of residents at Tent City 4, historically

- Define “discretionary” as used in the City of Redmond Zoning Code

- Map potential host sites in Sammamish
Codes of Conduct - Differences

Share/Wheel

- “Sobriety is required.”
- “No physical punishment, verbal abuse or intimidation will...”
- “Attendance of at least one of the several community meetings held through the week is required. Days and times will be posted so that you may work it into your schedule.”
- “If these rules are not respected and enforced, Tent City 4 may be permanently closed.”

Camp Unity Eastside

- “No open flames or smoking in tents or honey buckets.”
- “Violating one or more terms of this code of conduct may result in you being temporarily or permanently evicted from Camp Unity Eastside.”
Camp Unity Eastside: Expected Duties of Camper

- Security shifts
- Blankets
- Things you might get evicted for
New Information

- Peer city code development record
- Written public comment summary
- Draft Homeless Encampment Use Permit code language
City Council Direction: February Retreat

- Limit encampments to one location in the city at any one time
- Limit a site that has hosted from hosting again (say for 12 or 18 months)
- Limit total sites hosting to one site every 365 days
- Limit stays to 90 days plus move-in/move-out days (so about 94 total)
- Work with hosts/encampment sponsors to ensure warrant and sex offender checks. Options to consider include:
  - All residents at move-in
  - New prospective residents that ask to move in
  - Returning residents that have been absent for four days or more
- Proximity to transit or alternative mechanism provided by host site (e.g. ¼ or ½ mile)
- Public notice and comment opportunity
Draft Code
