CITY OF SAMMAMISH
WASHINGTON
ORDINANCE NO.O2002-118

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF SAMMAMISH, WASHINGTON, ESTABLISHING BUSINESS LICENSE REQUIREMENTS.

WHEREAS, the City Council has determined that it is a necessary exercise of the duties and authorities delegated to it by the Washington State Constitution and the laws of the State of Washington to establish regulations designed to maintain current information with respect to business, trade, service, commercial and professional activities carried on within the City; and

WHEREAS, the City Council has determined that the maintenance of information with respect to current business, trade, service, commercial and professional activities carried on within the City can best be accomplished through the establishment of a program for the licensing and registration of such activities;

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SAMMAMISH, WASHINGTON, DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Purpose. In order for the city to responsibly carry out the duties and authorities delegated to it by the Washington State Constitution and the laws of the State of Washington as a noncharter code city, maintenance of current information with respect to business, trade, service, commercial and professional activities carried on within the city is necessary and essential to the public health, safety and welfare. Such information can best be accumulated and maintained on a current basis through the establishment of a program for the licensing and registration of such activities.

Section 2. Definitions. A. Unless defined otherwise herein, this chapter incorporates by reference all definitions set forth in Chapter 82.04 RCW, or as hereafter amended.

7. Provision of internet or wireless phone services where the provider operates from premises located outside the city and the only event occurring within the city is receipt of such services.

Section 4. License Fee. A. A business license fee shall be paid to the city in an amount set by resolution of the city council.

B. Payment of the license fee shall be due before business commences and renewed on or before the last day of January of each successive year.

C. The license fee shall be in addition to any license fee or tax imposed or levied under any law or other ordinance of the city, except as otherwise expressly provided.

D. The following shall be exempt from payment of fee:

1. Nonprofit activities carried on by religious, charitable, educational, benevolent, fraternal or social organizations which have been determined by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) of the United States to be exempt from the payment of income tax and whose charitable contributions would be deemed tax deductible, provided that the organization shall file a true and correct copy a current IRS 501(c) exemption certificate. Such organizations with the city may be issued a business license at no charge.

Section 5. License – Application and issuance. A. A business license must be obtained and the license fee paid before a business commences operation within the city. If business is transacted by one person at two or more separate locations within the city, a separate license shall be obtained and displayed in each location.

B. A business license shall expire on December 31st of the year for which it is issued. A new license shall be required for each year and the license fee shall be paid on or before the last day of January.

C. Applications for business licenses shall be made to the director on forms provided by the city, which shall state the residence of the applicants, the nature of the proposed business, the proposed location of the business, and such other information as the director may reasonably request. If the director finds that the application is complete and correct, that all required fees have been paid, and all laws and requirements have been complied with, a business license shall be issued. Business license applications submitted to the city, and business licenses, are public records open to inspection, except as otherwise provided by law.

D. The director shall, when appropriate, refer applications to the department of community development, the police department, the fire department, or other governmental agencies for their review.

E. If more than one business is conducted or operated on a single premises, a separate license shall be required for each business. If a business is conducted or operated on more than one premises in the city, a separate license shall be required for each premises in the city.

F. The filing of an application for a license, or the renewal thereof, or the payment of any application or renewal fee, shall not authorize a person to engage in or conduct a business until such license has been granted or renewed.

G. A business license shall be personal and nontransferable. Where a licensee’s place of business is changed, the licensee shall return the license to the director and a new license shall be issued for the new place of business without charge. No licensee shall allow another person to operate a business under, or display, the license, nor shall another person operate under or display the license.

H. The city’s decision to issue or the issuance of a business license shall not be construed as permission or acquiescence in a prohibited activity or other violation; and the city shall not be held liable for the actions of any licensed business by virtue of having issued a license to conduct business.

I. Every licensee shall permit reasonable inspections of the business premises by governmental authorities for the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter.

Section 6. Successor liability. A. Whenever any person required to be licensed by this chapter quits business, or sells, exchanges or otherwise disposes of his/her business or stock of goods, any license fee, tax or penalty payable to the city shall immediately become due and payable, and such person shall, within 30 days, file the required forms and pay the amounts due. Any person who becomes a successor to such person shall become liable for the full amount of the license fee, tax or penalties due and owing, unless such person gives written notice to the director of such acquisition no less than 30 days before the date of closing.

B. Each person’s account will remain on an active status and be subject to all license fees and penalties until such time as the director is notified in writing that the person has discontinued business activity within the city.

Section 7. License – Suspension, denial or revocation. A. A business license may be denied, suspended or revoked by the director whenever the licensee or any of its officers, directors, agents, owners or employees fails or have failed:

1. To maintain the licensed premises or business activity in compliance with applicable health, building, fire, safety laws, ordinances, or regulations; or
2. To comply with the requirements of this ordinance. Any suspension shall remain in effect until the conditions causing the suspension are cured and reasonable measures are taken to ensure that those conditions will not recur.

B. The director shall, by certified mail, give written notice to the applicant of denial of a license or to the licensee of suspension or revocation of a license, including a summary of the complaints, objections and information considered by the director and the reason(s) for the action. Notice mailed to the mailing address on the application or most recent renewal shall be deemed received three days after mailing. The director’s decision may be appealed to the City Hearing Examiner upon payment of the appropriate appeal fee.

C. A business license revoked for failure to pay the annual license fee or business and occupation tax shall be reinstated if payment of the amount due, together with any penalties due thereon, is made within 15 days of the date of the notice.

Section 8. Duties of the Director. A. The director shall keep full and accurate records of all funds received under the provisions of this ordinance. Upon receipt of such amount, the director shall deposit the amounts collected into the current expense fund of the city.

B. The director may adopt, publish and enforce rules and regulations for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of this ordinance, and it is unlawful to violate or fail to comply with any such rule or regulation.

Section 9. Enforcement. A. Collection. The license fee and all penalties imposed under this ordinance shall constitute a debt to the city and may be collected by court proceedings, which remedy shall be in addition to all other existing remedies. Any judgment entered in favor of the city shall include an award to the city of all court and collection costs including attorney’s fees. Amounts delinquent more than 90 days may be assigned for collection, in which case the amount of any collection charges shall be in addition to all other amounts owed.

B. Criminal Penalties. It shall be a misdemeanor when any person:

1. Engages in business within the city without first obtaining or renewing a business license or fails to comply with any provision of this ordinance; or
2. Makes any false representation in connection with an application for a business license. Second or subsequent offenses shall be gross misdemeanors.

Section 10. Severability. Should any section, paragraph, sentence, clause or phrase of this Ordinance, or its application to any person or circumstance, be declared unconstitutional or otherwise invalid for any reason, or should any portion of this Ordinance be pre-empted by state or federal law or regulation, such decision or pre-emption shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this Ordinance or its application to other persons or circumstances.
Section 11. Effective Date. This Ordinance shall be published in the official newspaper of the City, and shall take effect and be in full force beginning February 1, 2003.
